THREE CENTS PER COPY.

tions to which we would invite your at-

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Washington, February 22-1 A. M.—
For Virginia, fair weather, light to fresh reisable winds, stationary temperature.
For North Carolina, fair weather, preceded by light rains in the eastern portion, light to fresh northeasterly winds, attonary temperature, except in the extreme outhern portion, slightly colder.

THE WEATHER IN RICHMOND YESTERDAY WAS

AN ANTOR-HOUSE BURGLARY.

day. No house or store is safe. The moment thickness learn of the presence of precious goods barely successful. As interesting, especially so when it is learned what | bowed.

bait, especially as the thieves had mysteriously and fearing that he could not overpower all road hands were thereabouts. soon returned with Policemen Smith and Mc-

Rushing in, the three pollogues found that the thieves had field leaving their today in bags unabashed by the few modest but steady gross of Scotch Cats Essence, the greatest known Nerve Tonic and Brain Invigorant. Every one have risked their lives to get it. Anyhonest man need not steal it, for it costs but $1 per bottle bard, in which have risked their lives to get it. Anyhonest man need not steal it, for it costs but $1 per bottle bard, in which have a mile distant from the present landing of any ferry or ferries on that shore now

ALL-WOOL AND SILK WARP HENRIETTA LOTHS, CASHMERES, SERGES, MERINOS, LPACAS, MOHAIRS, CREPE CLOTHS, SEBAS,
OPOL, MELROSE, NUNS VEILING, AL
ATROS, DRAP D'ALMA, MARIA THERESA,

FOF OUR SPRING DRESS GOODS | He were dark clothes and a black silk are just what the Ladies want. We have no difficulty in suiting them in style, quality, and prices. M

e. will buy a pair of LACE PHLLOW SHAMS at

BOOKS, STATIONERY, &c.

CHEAPEST BOOKSTORE IN THE WORLD, 825 EAST BROAD STREET.

IF YOU WANT A FINE BOOK, A FINE SET OF BOOKS, FOR ABOUT ONE THIRD OF THE REGULAR PRICE. GO TO THE CHEAPEST BOOKSTORE IN THE WORLD.

WE POSITIVELY GUARANTEE TO SELL AT A HALF OR LESS THAN HALF THE PUB-

ALL THE SCHOOL-BOOKS AND

STATIONERY AT 1902 MAIN STREET.

OLD BOOKS TAKEN IN EXCHANGE.

RANDOLPH & ENGLISH.

NEW VIRGINIA LAW-BOOK-A JUST PUBLISHED.—A new and complete Boos of Forms intended as a guide to cierks of courts in Virginia—adapted to the new Code of Virginia; also, precedents of declarations, indictineents, informations, conveyances, and other practical forms for the use of attorneys and others, by Frederick Johnston, formerly clear for Roanoke county, Price 5. The new Code of Virginia will soon be published. Orders soletted. WEST, JGHNSTON & CO.,
[a 22] 911 Main street.

SUBSCRIBERS TO OUR LIBRARY

HE AND HIS WIFE BUN THROUGH RICH-MOND AND HALT IN MANCHESTER.

Thence They Proceed on Their Way to the Sub-Tropical Exposition at Jacksonville, Fla.

President and Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Colonel Daniel S. Lamont, the President's private secretary, and wife, Mr. William C. Whitney, Secretary of the Navy, and wife, attended by two maids Charleston in the course of their present and one man servant, passed through southern trip, and that if the necessary Richmond yesterday afternoon on a spe- arrangements can be made they will begun at Lexington. cial train from Washington, en route to Jacksonville, Fla., whither they go to back from Florida. visit the Sub-Tropical Exposition. ON THE TRAIN.

The train, which was composed of an engine and baggage-car and the draw-ing-room car Newport, closely followed the fast mail, arriving here at 3:25 o'clock. Its coming had been heralded by the morning press, and though the Burglars Break into Ditman's Drug-store. Under the Aster House, and Leave Their Spotis Behind-Fright. ladies, stood at Elba and Byrd-Street stations hoping the train would stop and that they would get a glimpse of the disbarely successful. As the train rolled in any place they at once lay plans to secure it, through the city Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland came out on the rear platform, and, in Great as was the excitement attenting the ron-berr of the Manhattan Bank, at Broadway and acknowledgment of the shouts and occa-Bisecker streets, that which came near being signal waying of handkerchiefs, the Pre-sident bared his executive brow and been frightened away by a policeman.

Ditman's store is situated directly under the Asicr House, on the corner of Eurolay street and side of the river was gained, where en-No halt was made until the Manchester | weather is promised for to-morrow. Breadway, and owing to the number of doors gines were changed. This was an unexquently there was no outpouring of the | The Anti-Scalpers Bill Again Favor-There was decidedly no ovation, and Mr. Cleveland rolled into Manchester and created no more enthusiasm than Mr. Booth did when he walked on hing and acted on the following bills: Washington, all members of the old than Mr. Booth did when he walked on | ning and acted on the following bills: Abearn, of the Sixth precinct, thought he heard than Mr. Booth did when he walked on sounds issuing from Ditman's store, and peering the Theatre stage recently. A member in through the closed shutters was norrifled to of the Dispatch reportornal corps was, igh the closed shutters was harrified to be men moving about inside by the dim bowever, on hand to do the honors of Senate Bill 259, to prevent that travellers. Favorably reported. tight of a shaded candle. There being two doors the town. Beside him only a few rail- Bayside. Turnpike Company, without

THEY EYE MANCHESTER AND BELLE ISLE, sumed in the exchange of locomotives, however, seemed interested in the view fe 23-1t wandered over the pages of history, and he must have thought of what an important place Richmond has held in history. Presently his wife made some remark to him, and he awoke from the reverie and began talking. Soon the whole party

HOW MRS, CLEVELAND LOOKED, Mrs. Cleveland were a bottle-green travelling suit trimmed with black braid, and around the bottom and neck with a small edge of gray fur. Her hands were Carolina Railroad Company, with amendation of the board, and it was agreed that General Munford should greed that General Munford should write the report, including these matters. Just what language should be used was, of course, not decided upon. Some HATROS, DRAP PALETIAN CLOTHS, TORNISE BUSINESS AND SURAIL QUILTS, CREFE AND NUNS AND SURAIL QUILTS, CREFE AND NUNS SURAIL QUILTS, CREFE AND NUNS SERVE THREAD, AND SILK AND LISLE THREAD HOSE: RID, THREAD, AND SILK GLOVES; CREFE FOR THEMMINGS, RUFFFLINGS, COLLARS AND CUFFS, DRESS TRIM-She wore a small bunch of white flowers on her breast. Her entire dress was PARASOLS AND UMBRELLAS. simple and quiet, but next and becom-We show a large and desirable stock of PARASOLS and UNBERLLAS. Call early and masses
Four solections will extract the following as mean for the follow We show a large and desirable stock of PAKA-ing. In figure she is slighter than the SOLS and UMBERLEAS. Call early and make

THE PRESIDENT A BIG MAN. Mr. Cleveland did not look quite so tout as when here at the State Fair, but colors, embroidered backs and faulties fit-actual value is $1.25. LEVY & DAVIS. the diminution, if any, is scarcely per-has a dignified, distinguished air, and a

#III buy a piece of the best quality COTTON | Kindly eye.

As the train left Manchester Mr. | Cleveland and his wife still stood on the platform. kindly eye.

As the train left Manchester Mr.

On the fast mail which arrived here at 2:45 were also a number of noted people bound also for Jacksonville, Among them were Senator Call and Among them were Senator Call and Secretary, Directors: Joseph Bryan, S. Scottor, Early, W. Trees, R. S. Reshor, V. J. White, and its finances undergoing the president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second of the charges; will illustrate its tenor and explain some of the charges; typno-malarial, 1; heart-disease, 2; hemorrhage—lungs, 1; long labor and president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; William A. Price, second vice president; John C. Freeman, first vice president; William A. Price, second vice presi wife and two daughters, Senator Faulk-ner and wife, Senator Daniel and wife, burst, Howard Swineford, Charles D. Senator Pugh, wife and daughter, Sena- Larus, George L. Christian, B. M. or George, wife and daughter, Senator | Quarles, and Frank T. Bates.

which backed into the old Byrd-Street | by Mr. Lathrop; and also all bonds, bills land and two or three of his Cabinet tion such negotiable paper as is running members arrived here, visited the Fair to maturity, to the end that the same the city, called at the Governor's house, all other choses in action, &c.

Mrs. Cleveland was expected here on that occasion, and there was great disappointment that she did not come, but an eighteen-year-old colored youth in delicate health.

The Journey Southward.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) Petersburg, VA., February 21 .- A large crowd gathered at both the lower and upper depots this evening to get a glimpse of the presidential party as the train passed through the city. I dent Cleveland appeared upon the form of the car with uncovered head and acknowledged the cheers of the crowd with repeated bows. Mrs. Cleveland also showed herself at the door of the car and was as much noticed as her hus-

AT WILMINGTON, N. C.

WILMINGTON, N. C., February 21.— The President's special arrived here at 10:40 P. M. without accident or delay. The President's special arrived here at 10:40 P. M. without accident or delay. The train stopped at the old Union depot and did not come into the city. After a change of engines and a thorough exam- Leigh streets. Damage about $25. ination of the trucks it started for the will please make diligent search through their cellulars and garrets and return all books they have had for more than ten days and oblige other subscribers as well as PARHAM & CO.

Superintendent Devine had charge of the train from Weldon to Charleston.

CHARLESTON WANTS TO SEE HIM. cial meeting of the City Council to-day a resolution was passed requesting Mayor Bryan to appoint a committee of the Council and citizens to extend to President Cleveland an invitation to visit

An Investigation Being Made Here Before Charleston, and to welcome him to the city as its guest.

THEY WANT TO STOP AT CHARLESTON.

THE PREPARATIONS AT JACKSONVILLE. JACKSONVILLE, FLA., February 21.-The news of the actual departure of the presidential party from Washington today greatly stimulated the enthusiasm of

All of the hotels and boarding-houses are jammed and the Committee on Entertainment is providing for the accommodation of visitors in the private houses of citizens. The President will receive the grandest popular ovation ever that it was there that they first saw it.

Counsel made brief opening speeches,

Mrs.

SENATE ROADS COMMITTEE.

ably Reported. The Senate Committee on Roads and L.

Senate Bill 299, to prevent frauds upon | board, Senate Bill 442, to incorporate the House Bill 253, to incorporate the About three or four minutes were con- Navigation Company, with amend-known as Ninth street; and provided further that the landing of said ferry or ferries on the King and Queen shore of the Mattaponi river shall be at least half the Mattaponi river shall be at least half and distant from the present landing that he fully endorsed this report.

The letter he said something to the finite was read at Rich man's back a good scratching.

A letter was read from an absent member of the board, in which he said from the track and he received injuries from the track and he received injuries from the track and he received injuries from which it is alleged he died.

crossing of one railroad by another, &c. question whether the report was simply that of General Munford or that of the ports and Election of Officers. done during the past year, and Mr. C. E. Thomas, the general secretary, pre-thority.

Bristol) with amendments.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

religious operations of the association. Hon. J. H. II. Figgat, of Botetourt, ciation work, and showed himself as fa-Mr. Whitney is also quite large, and miliar with it as legislative business. Hon, H. R. Pollard, of King and Queen, who was to have been one of the speaknewing our smoking rains and con- directed that the defendants, George A. to Washington, where, in a few days, he was killed. He walked about the excent federate capital in perfect safety, but in his own received the assassin's shot.

General Grant did not come here the desired from the control of the 25th flat from selling, collecting, and restrained from selling, collecting, with any of the goods and property of said George A. Lathrop & Co. conveyed while he was President, but was in the to said J. Blythe Moore, trustee, by deed city about 1868, stopped at the Spotswood Hotel, sauntered about our streets leisurely smoking his cigar, and then order of the Court they are enjoined departed southwardly.

President Hayes and wife and several order of the Court they are enjoined from selling or in any way interfering members of the Cabinet visited Richmond during the Fair of 1877, and stayed here several days.

with the goods and property.

In the same order Marshal Thomas W. Scott is directed to take possession of here several days.

April 5, 1883, President Arthur en the stock of goods, property, &c., and the books of account and all papers reproduce to Florida on a fishing expedition arrived in Richmond on a special train, lating to the business lately conducted depot, but the President did not leave notes, and other evidences of debt due his seat and only once or twice looked | them, and safely keep the same until the out of the window during the ten-minutes halt here. further order of the Court. The Mar-shal is directed to make an inventory minutes' halt here.

November 1, 1887, President Cleveand to deposit in some bank for collec-Grounds, and in the evening drove about | may be promptly collected; to collect

Cutting Affrays.

About 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening the explanation was given that she was named Jake Dudley was arrested for in delicate health. ored man, with a knife. The affair happened at the corner of Pine and Cary streets, and it is claimed the cutting was accidental. Dandridge, who was seriously wounded in the bowels, was taken to the almshouse hospital, and Dudly was locked up in the Third police station.

Last night two boys—both colored—
French Howard, son of Walker Howard, the Capitol janitor, and Joseph Bland was severly cut by Bland. The injury was slight, but Bland was arrested and lodged in the First station.

In the afternoon another blaze oc-

Fires Yesterday.

THE MILITARY MEN.

RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1888.

CHARLESTON, February 21.—At a spe- CONTROVERSY BETWEEN GENERALS FRANCIS H. SMITH AND T. T.

> a Special Legislative Committee.

Washington, D. C., February 21.—It is stated this evening on good authority that the President and Mrs. Cleveland have expressed a strong desire to visit Charleston in the course of their present.

The legislative committee appointed to investigate matters in connection with the Virginia Military Institute met last the gas and its cost, and find it excessive and out of all reason. The quality of the Virginia Military Institute met last night at 8 o'clock in the Senate chamber.

The board have examined the gas and its cost, and find it excessive and out of all reason. The quality of the gas is very poor. For the past night at 8 o'clock in the Senate chamber.

Charleston in the course of their present.

Several of the old board were present as saving of about $1,000 per annum.

Hon. R. T. Barton, of Winchester, an the people, and the work of preparation is being pushed by various committees.
The programme of entertainment in cludes a street procession, a visit to the Sub-Tropical Exposition and a thorough inspection of its attractions, and a public reception by the presidential party at the hotel in the evening.

Thousands of strangers are in the city and every arriving train swells the crowd. and every arriving train swells the crowd.

All of the hotels and boarding-houses

Rain fell here nearly all day, but clear and the taking of testimeny was soon

The witnesses were General Munford, president of the board; Colonel A. S. Buford, of Richmond; Colonel Joseph Sherrard, of Rockbridge; Colonel H. L. D. Lewis, of Clarke; Mr. Letcher,

THE REPORT TO WHICH GENERAL SMITH OBJECTED.

General Munford's report was written by him and sent here to Colonel Buford Richmond and Eltham Railroad and with the request that the Colonel elimi-Richmond and Eltham Bailroad and Navigation Company, with amendment—as follows:

"Provided that the landing of said ferry or ferries on the West Point shore of the Mattaponi river shall be at a point not below the foot of the street now in the control of the Mattaponi river shall be at a point not below the foot of the street now in the control of the Mattaponi river shall be at a point not below the foot of the street now in the control of the control not below the foot of the street now the letter he said something to the effect $500. On the 1st of October last an ac

House Bill 371, providing for the The inquiry was solely directed to the House Bill 40, to incorporate the Great Southern railroad (runs from Norfolk to Bristol) with amendments.

board. All of the witnesses except Mr.
Letcher said that the points to which General Smith excepted were discussed Senate Bill 336, to amend and re-enact at a meeting of the board, and it was diet and judgment for the plaintiff for of them, however, expected to see the report before it was published. Witnesses said that while they might not fully endorse the language, the main facts as given were agreed upon.

THE PRISONAL REFERENCES.

Mr. Leicher said that as a matter of The City Advisory Board.

Steamer Company No. 3, of this city, left here on the evening train for Alexandria as follows: Messrs. H. C. Porter, Joseph L. Levy, and J. R. Sheppard.

Steamer Company No. 3, of this city, with Mr. Ryland it would be reckless andria, whither they go to take part in the Washington birth-day colebration border.

Andrew Jackson Monroe Ward Club met at Columbus's Hall last night and elected members of the Advisory Board as follows: Messrs. H. C. Porter, Joseph L. Levy, and J. R. Sheppard.

Parameter Company No. 3, of this city, with Mr. Ryland it would be reckless andria, whither they go to take part in the Washington birth-day colebration border.

Andrew Jackson Monroe Ward Club met at Columbus's Hall last night and elected members of the Advisory Board as follows: Messrs. H. C. Porter, Joseph L. Levy, and J. R. Sheppard.

Parameter Company No. 3, of this city, with Mr. Ryland it would be reckless andria, whither they go to take part in the Washington birth-day colebration border.

Hydraulian Company of Alexandria and will return home to-morrow.

You cannot get any one to work in the Constraint for Alexandria the part of the paper in the Washington birth-day colebration burial, and were this all it would not be necessary to have an appointed minister in order to supply it.

You cannot get any one to with Mr. Ryland it would be reckless with Mr. Ryland it would be reckless.

Andrew Jackson Monroe Ward Club met at Columbus's story, sample copies of the New York Ledges containing the opening character.

You cannot get any one to with Mr. Ryland it would not be reckless.

You cannot get any one to with Mr. Ryland it with Mr. Ryland it with Mr. Ryland it would not be reckless with Mr. Ryland it would not be reckless.

You cannot get any one to with Mr said that while they might not fully en-given were agreed upon. Mr. Letcher said that as a matter of L. Levy, and J. R. Sheppard. sions of these subjects during the three years that this board was in auman), when the testimony on this point was concluded, retired and came to the unanimous decision that the report signed by General Munford was the report of the board, and would be considered as such in the investigation.

The committee, at 11 o'clock, rose to meet again this afternoon at 14 o'clock.

GENERAL MUNFORD'S COMMENTS ON GEN The committee (Senator Stubbs chair-

LING containing 25 yards.

See will buy a pair of LACE PILLOW SHAMS at

LING containing 25 yards.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: William Ellyson, president; John C. Freeman, first vice
See will buy a pair of LACE PILLOW SHAMS at

LING containing 25 yards.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: William Ellyson, president; John C. Freeman, first vice
The following officers were elected for the coming year: William Ellyson, president; John C. Freeman, first vice
The following officers were elected for the substitute of the substitute

Payne and wife, Senator Reagan, wife and daughter, Senator Jones, of Arkansas, wife and daughter, Senator Buffer's two daughters, and ex-Senator Simon Cameron.

President Lincoln came to Richmond immediately after the evacuation of the city by the Confederate troops, and after viewing our smoking ruins and control of the final service of the final service of the measure.

Business litigation.

Business litigation as 15.08 per cent, per lipopulation was 13.93 per cent, per lipopulation was 13.93 per cent, per lipopulation was 16.54 per cent. Some colored population was 16.54 per cent. Som ferring with some eminent Unionists and others in relation to the re-establishment Samuel P. Lathrop, show cause before we ascertained that the debits of the for such credit. Referring to the book, we ascertained that the debits of the cadets amounted to nearly $50,000—running back for many years. Our board interdicted all credits, and, by a period of the cadets amounted to nearly $50,000—running back for many years. Our board interdicted all credits, and, by a period of the cadets amounted to nearly $50,000—running back for many years. Our board interdicted all credits, and, by a period of the cadets amounted to nearly $50,000—running back for many years. Our board forty years, 2; fifty to sixty years, 5; crowds it has been determined to hold the services in the main audience-room of civil government in Virginia returned | this court at Richmond on the 28th inremptory order, instructed the superintendent to issue no orders upon the treasurer for the benefit of the cadets unless they had to their credit money in hand. To-day if there is any loss to the State from that source the superintendent is liable for those debts.

Your attention is most respectfully

Vard, 2: Monroe Ward, 4; Clay Ward, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Ireland, 1: Scotland, 1.

Locality: City at large, 1; Marshall the act of the last Legislature, will meet at the county court-house on Saturday at 11 o'clock A. M.

they were it is too heavy an undertaking colored 1.
to expect of them. It is best, as the Tempero State is principally interested, that understanding of these matters to start with.

I respectfully ask your attention to the accompanying reports, which I 1888, .11 inches. should be most happy to endorse in toto,

T. E. Stratton, M. D., but I feel constrained to demur from a portion of the report of the venerable superintendent. The expenditures he refers to will be accounted for by the Committee on Finance. The appropriavision of the superintendent. And the insurance of the public buildings has een entirely overlooked in his estimates of expenditures. This is quite an item.

It is the sense of the board that the encampment should be resumed during were playing with a knife, and Howard the months of July and August, deeming the duties of camp life as essential to the soldier as the battalion drill and the manual of arms. But as the tents belonging to the Institute were sent to Charleston, S. C., by the superintendent,

BAND.

tendent may enlist musicians." be corner Thirteenth, $1,150; Tyler and changed to read the Board of Visitors may direct how the post band at the Virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the post band at the virginia Military Institute shall be or-springly many direct how the virginia Military Institut QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT. * * * The board have examined which takes place at the Theatre to night : to continue their labors which were $1,700 per annum, or about $4.38 per thousand feet. A committee has been 3 Aria—"A Quel Glorno 5 (Semirabegun at Lexington.

The chamber was well filled with spectators, among them being a number of ladies and members of the two branches of the General Assembly. Several of the old board were present as without $1,000 per annum.

Instructed to contract for gas with parties who propose to guarantee the cost of a better quality of gas at not more than $1 per thousand feet. By this arrangement we expect to give the lights at a saving of about $1,000 per annum.

Instructed to contract for gas with parties which parties who propose to guarantee the cost of a better quality of gas at not more than $1 per thousand feet. By this arrangement we expect to give the lights at a saving of about $1,000 per annum.

Instructed to contract for gas with parties which parties who propose to guarantee the cost of a better quality of gas at not more than $1 per thousand feet. By this arrangement we expect to give the lights at a saving of about $1,000 per annum. instructed to contract for gas with parties

AT THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION.

bers of the Legislature were also among | Second station-house.

the guests. Governor Lee was assisted by Colonels Cowardin and James, of his staff, both

CIRCUIT COURT MATTERS.

Verdict for the Plaintiff-Coupon-

Crusher Cases. R. T. Totty, administrator of George

Four more of the suits brought by the Commonwealth under the "coupon crusher" were tried, judgment being entered for the Commonwealth, by consent, Ellis F. Harris es. Mrs. Jane King. Verdict and judgment for $250. C. Ham Reid vs. Henry Ross, Ver-quitted.

When we entered upon our delicate pressure of forceps on head of chicks and uninviting duties we found the indelivery, 1; marasmus, 1; old age, 1; referred the House bill establishing a stitute and its finances undergoing the paralysis, 2; pneumonia, 3; scarlatina, Bureau of Agriculture met yesterday

Age: One to thirty days, 3; six to at the Grace-Street Baptist church last twelve months, 1; one to three years, 3; night. Dr. Ellis, of Baltimore, preached

Your attention is most respectfully called to the fact that no thorough investigation has been made for years by experts as to the status of the various trust funds connected with the Virginia Military Institute. Under the present system the Board of Visitors are not system the Board of Visitors are not system.

Temperature: Mean temperature for week ending February 19, 1887, 48,57. a thorough overhauling be had, that Mean temperature for week ending our successors may at least have a clear February 18, 1888, 50°.00. Amount of rainfall for week ending February 19, 1887, .57 inches. Amount of rainfall for week ending February 18,

> President Board of Health. Measuring Out Justice.

The following were the most important cases before the Police Court yesterday Edward Donahoe, keeping his barroom open and selling liquor on Sunday, February 19, 1888. Fined $25. Fannie Winston (colored), feloniously stealing $14 worth of wearing apparel,

The First Precinct Democratic Club

the property of Maggie Brown. Sept on of Marshall Ward was reorganized Monto the grand jury.

Nicholas Booker (colored), breaking officers: F. J. Parater, president; M. into the stable of Mrs. F. Walker in the Fitzpatrick, first vice-president; James night and stealing one ten-gallon oil-can | Childress, second vice-president; Thomas with contents. Sent on to the grand Booker is already in jail awaiting Anniversary of Washington's Birthday. To-day being the anniversary of the birthday of Washington, the State and city offices and the banks will be closed. Carney Guard, Captain Nicholas (colored), will para

he has opposed it; second, because it is Cyrus Graffam, 88 feet on Clarke street placed entirely in an improper light by him in the accompanying report; and the only solution we can suggest is that the law, which reads "that the superintegrated by the law, which reads "that the superintegrated by the law, which reads that the superintegrated by the law, which reads the law reads the law, which reads the law reads the law reads the law, which reads the law reads the law reads th

> Campanini Concert. The following is the programme for the Campanini-Gerster-Scalchi concert, Signori Campanini, Galassi, Mme. Scalchi, and Mme. Gerster.

The court adjourned to the 5th of Judge Hughes, after being here for several days holding court, yesterday left the spiritual cravings of these people at Most respectfully your He entered orders of distribution in bousted churches and institutions and several cases that have long been on the docket.

Company es. Morton Marye, Auditor,

Steps are on foot for the incorporation

tality in the city, showing ages of dece-dents, sex and color, and annual death-Richmond, were at Enniskallen, Ireland, the pauper a glorious immortality.

An Observer. Elchnood, Va., February 20, 1888.

Mr. Guy's Position Endorsed.

ion, or membership, of any church in owing admirable letter received from him early in the day on which my letter

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, GEORGE COOPER, D. D., PASTOR,

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 17, 1888.

haplaincy, which I believe comes before the Council meeting to-night. I thank you for that opposition, and am heartily glad you made it. Let it not cease, As house, white or colored, at any time, provided I am made aware of the time of the service. If such cases have occurred let it be known that had any of the min-country and the principles of religion.

Yours most cordially, GROBGE COOPER.

Protest of Baptist City Pastors.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen and the Common Council of the JACKSON GUY.

was published. Respectfully yours,

February 20, 1888.

Mr. Jackson Guy:

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

compensated for their time, and even if 15; colored 14; still-born-white 2, of appreciation of her valuable services as organist of the lodge.

There is a bill either before the House the city we are opposed to it, and had and Governor's house and restore the our voice against it. We most carnestly walks in the Capitol Square. All of this work is much needed, and the sooner the better and cheaper. The Capitol Square should be put in good order orphan schools of every denominational PRICE GREENLEAP AID FOR STUDENTS. once more.

Mr. Lovenstein's bill abolishing convict labor on the Capitol Square and appropriating $1,000 per annum to pay for rather pay it myself than have our free labor instead, passed the Senate ladies take it from the city. We are vesterday. This is a measure from totally opposed to denominations sup-which the State will derive actual pecu-porting schools or asylums or homes at niary benefits, and it also removes a great source of irritation to the honest

Davis, secretary; R. A. Cavedo, treasurer ; James Roach, sergeant-at-arms; F. the action of the grand jury in not less than four cases of robbing hen-roosts.

J. Parater, M. Fitzpatrick, and James Slatery, advisory board.

made at the Capitol, in person or by letter, as to the probability of the passage of the bill providing that all banks that will give the State security in Riddleberger bonds at 70 cents in the delidieberger bonds at 70 cents in the dollar shall become depositories of public money; provided that the minimum sum so deposited shall not be less than $25,000. The bill has not yet here This subject deserves special notice for several reasons—first, because, by reference to the several reports of the superintendent on this subject it will be seen intendent on this subject intendent on this subject it will be seen intendent on this subject intendent on this subject it will be seen intendent on this subject intendent on the subject intendent of the subject intenden

THE ALMSHOUSE MINISTER. certain Christian churches or sects and known as the "Baptist Home for Aged Women" and others of like character. Our protest is based upon considera-Little Visters of the Poor Not Sectarian-Ministers Should Be Paid. To the Editor of the Dispatch : sectarian appropriations, I find the fol-lowing: "They are in origin, history, in the spirit of our State Constitution, lowing: "They are in origin, history, in the spirit of our State Constitution, aim, and purpose sectorian. Who can think otherwise? 'The Baptist Home with the Church, and so practically disfor Aged Women,' for example, is of courages any overture from either Church Baptists, by Baptists, for Baptists. In a or State looking to a blending of their word, it is sectarian. So are the other spheres, work, offices, or revenues.

'homes' and the asylum of the 'Little

2. Public money is a public trust, to be used in ways which will serve the Sisters of the Poor.' The reverend gentlemen in this para- public as a whole, whereas the proposed graph seems to put the "Baptist Home for Aged Women" and the "Little Sisters of the Poor" on the same footing as regards sectarianism, which be 3. The plain teachings of Christ, the ing as regards sectarianism, which he has defined as "of, by, and for." This Head of the Church Universal, leave us Rossini, is certainly a mistake. There is nothing no other alternative than to accept as a sectarian about the institution of the positive ordinance, irrevocable and uni-"Little Sisters." If they have a vacant bed, no matter who the applicant is, provided he be properly recommended, he world." "Render unto Cosar," said vided he be properly recommended, he is welcome to the "Little Sisters." Christ, "the things that are Cosar's and they care not for your mode of worship; unto God the things that are God's." From these and kindred passages of the they only see that you are old and fee-ble, desolate, without a home, and the of Christ that the functions of the Church halls of their asylum are open to you, and the State are distinct and separate, and you are welcome therein.

by Mrs. Mann Page, Miss Mason (a cousin of Governor Lee), and Miss Fowle, Mrs. Lee's sister. Among the callers

Was assisted in receiving her guests and voil are welcome therein.

Meyerber. In the same issue of your valuable paper I notice another letter on the same subject over the name of C. H.

In the same issue of your valuable terprises devolves on the voil and receiving the same subject over the name of C. H.

4. Baptists look with district and the board.

CASUS RELLI.

The full report was published in the saconsprivate lent will tion ever but clear ow.

WITNESSES.

WITNESSES.

Mrs. Lee's sister. Among the callers were Miss Pegram of Providence, the Misses Starke (daughters of Colonel M Winston, Mrs. Cameron of Providence, R. I., Mrs. Phil. Haxall, and Miss Patterson of New York. A number of members of the Legislature were also among the Church the Church by the State to control of the Church by the State to contro instruction or Christian burial of the just as unscriptural and injurious to sout-inmates of the almshouse." Let us see.

The immates of the almshouse are those Church. Purcell against Conrad. From the control of Middlesex county. Reversed, Judge Lewis delivering the opin-law become unable to get for them. Shumate sgainst the Board of Supervisors of Fauquier county. Argued by R. R. Campbell, Esq., for plaintift, and Major R. T. Scott for defendant, and where the constraint of the necessaries of life, but that they are fed, clothed, and shell will deem it compatible with your distributions. tered. If this be a duty incumbent on a corporation—viz., to supply the temporal needs of its paupers—then it must. We are, gentlemen, with hearty, good be a far higher and more imperative wishes for the highest welfare of your-

> WILLIAM W. LANDRUM, tended to. It is all very well to talk of Sequel C. Clopton, Committee, Richmond, Va., Feb. 20, 1868. to pay $500 for the burnel of our paupers The case of the Virginia Steamboat has been made in our midst. This appears to me a rather high-strong sentimental view of this question. Clergymen have Ec., was yesterday dismissed.
>
> Bustings Court. Yesterday.
>
> John Mabry (colored), charged with seduction, was tried and acquitted.
>
> Sidney Staunton (colored), felonious assault on Edinborough Archer. Acquitted.
>
> Sidney Staunton (colored), relations discased, and who can do far more to competitive the lot of the unfortunate almstore to the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we comfort the lot of the unfortunate almstore it. Shirts (blue flamed) that we can do not be al

Most respectfully yours.

Piremen Gone to Alexandria.

Yesterday afternoon sixteen men of Steamer Company No. 3, of this city. left here on the evening train for Alexandria.

Union Democratic Club had last night the largest meeting since the campaign. Several good speeches were made and equally as good ones are promised next. The Grand Duchess" drew a fair Tuesday night.

whose ministrations may have won for bottle will cure you; we refer to Dr. David's Cough Syrap, that so many approve and recommend. Scrofula, Bronchitis, and General De-bility will try Scott's Emulsion of Cod-It has been exceedingly gratifying to Liver Oil with Hypothosphites, they me that the stand I took in the Council will find immediate relief and permain opposition to an appropriation for a chaplain to the city almshouse has been so generally endorsed by our citizens, and especially in so thorough a manner by some of the most prominent clergymen in the city. In view of other publications which have been made it is due to Dr. Cooper and the public—the paster of perhaps the largest congregation or resultant the city almshouse has been universally declare it a remedy of the greatest value and very palatable. Read: "I have used Scott's Emulsion in several cases of Scrofula and Debility in children. Results most gratifying. My little patients take it with pleasure."—W. A. Hulder, M. D., Salisbury, Ill.

After the Couces To-Night the city-that I should give you the fol- go to Antoni's Restaurant for supper.

> Metaphysics. Mrs. Evans, of the St. James Hotel, has been successfully engaged in prac-ticing and teaching Christian Science— Mental Healing—for a long time. She cordially invites the people of Richmond to investigate this most wonderful and satisfactory of all subjects. Office hours: 19 A. M. to 1 P. M.; 2 to 5 P. My Dear Sir, - Excuse the liberty I M. Consultation free. the interest of your opposition to the appropriation of $500 for the almshouse petizer and invigorator, imparts a delicious fia ANGOSTURA BITTERS, the world-renowned ap-

Phillips's Digestible Cocos one of many ministers in the city, I am willing to do any service at the almspresents a new and valuable food beverage. It s delicious to the tasts, highly nutritious, and rendered readily digestible. It will not caus distress or headache, like the ordinary cocons, vor to all drinks and cures dyspepsia, diarrhoss.

as reported—persons dying or being huried without any religious attention—

A CLEAR COMPLEXION.—How can you expect a clear complexion when the blood is full of huriest complexion when the blood is full of huriest complexion. a clear complexion when the blood is full of im-purities and the stomach clogged? The blood isters known it, it should not have been | becomes impure because the liver does not act or one of its committees proposing to appropriate $2,500 to repaint the Capitol sion of opinion, we would have lifted up liver, stomach, and bowels, and then the skin will become clear.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY character. As for the appropriation of A recent bequest enables Harvard University $125 for our Baptist Home for Aged to oper additional and to the amount of $12,000 sums of $150 to $250 a year, and will be awardporting schools or asylums or homes at the expense of the public treasury. It the expense of the public treasury. It preshman class. Students or graduates of other is entirely against the genius of the colleges can be admitted to alvanced standing ountry and the principles of religion.

This is hastily and briefly written, but for admission must pass the entrance examina-I most carnestly hope you will stand firmly opposed to this whole thing.

Yours most cordially,

Yours most cordially,

Yours most cordially, ment of the University (Aria, Science, Divinity, Law, Medicine, Dental Medicine, Veterinary elicine, or Agriculture) may be obtained by > niversity, 5 University Ball, Cambridge. AUCTION SALES TO-DAY.

apolying to FRANA BOLLES, Secretary of Harvard